Federation backs Hancock resolution, calls for state tidelands leasing ouster

DEEP HOLE offshore from Methodist Assembly, Waveland, site of several drownings over past few years, was being filled this week by Corps of Engineers dredge being utilized for maintenance work on Bayou Caddy (Cadet) channel. Recent discovery and drilling of oil and gas wells in the tidewater area of Hancock County, has fired up mineral lease activity in that area and caused state officials to extend Mississippi ownership claims to fringe lands that border coastal streams, bayous and marshes which have been on the tax rolls of private citizens for generations, according to Ed Blake, director of information, Mississippi Farm Bureau Federation.

Blake said this week that without the benefit of land surveys, the State of Mississippi is suddenly claiming and leasing portions of private property that the state claims is in the public domain at zero elevation or mean tide.

"Thousands of acres of tidal zone lands that have been in private hands for generations now are being leased by the state to oil companies, and much of the land in question apparently does not meet the zero elevation condition for state ownership," Blake said.

He said that in a recent visit to the area he talked with private landowners who have learned from unofficial sources that the state now claims both surface and mineral rights to portions of the lands they have bought and paid taxes on for generations of time.

"These landowners are finding that oil companies are dealing with both parties — executing lease agreements with the private landowners according to courthouse records and then executing leases with the State of Mississippi for some of the same property. Local citizens say they, the oil companies, are doing this to protect themselves and their leases in the face of the land ownership controversy that is sure to wind up in the courts," Blake said.

One of the concerned groups representing citizens in the area is the Hancock County Farm Bureau which has drawn up a statement asking the Mississippi Legislature to direct and require the State Mineral Lease Commission to cease mineral leasing and to rescind existing leases on private and county school lands and drop claims to ownership of low lands until on spot surveys have been made to determine exact boundaries of state ownership according to state law. The farm group has also asked the state to take responsibility for making surveys and setting up guidelines for same.

The Hancock Farm group faults the state's actions mostly as over-estimating the acreage the state owns at zero elevation, average mean tide. (Continued on Page 4)

Submarine work back at Ingalls

Congressman Trent Lott, has announced that Ingalls Shipbuilding in Pascagoula has received a $10,167,000 contract to prepare for the overhaul of the USS Trepang, a nuclear-powered submarine.

Lott said the contract, which was awarded by the Naval Sea Systems Command, calls for Ingalls to perform design and advance planning for overhaul of the Trepang as well as procurement of parts and equipment. The Trepang, which was commissioned on Aug. 14, 1970, is assigned to the Navy's Atlantic Fleet.

Lott said the contract will be modified later to include the actual overhaul work.

paid off with the arrest of a 24-year-old Bay St. Louis man and confiscation of some 15 pounds of marijuana.

Charged with possession of marijuana with intent to sell is Michael E. Wilkins of 649 Carroll Ave., Bay St. Louis.

Wilkins was arrested Thursday morning when he unwittingly led deputies to his "stash" in a wooded area near his residence, officers reported.

Wilkins attempted to run when informed of the presence of sheriff's men, but was apprehended by Deputy Paul Bernard, according to Ronnie Peterson, chief deputy.

Acting on a tip, the officers had kept the Wilkins residence under watch for the previous three days.

Peterson said his office had been alerted to an unusual amount of automobile traffic around the area, and was aware of the possibility of a large cache of marijuana in the wooded area.

About 8:30 a.m. Thursday, Wilkins came into the wooded area where deputies were staked out and he attempted to retrieve an army duffel bag hidden under leaves and approximately

I am sure it will be one of the highlights of my memories in office." (Staff photo - Ellis Cuevas)

Tax receipt needed prior to hook-ups

A spokesman for Mississippi Power Company said today that on and after Oct. 1, the law requires that mobile home owners who apply for electric service must present the company with a certificate of registration issued by the county tax assessor before power can be connected.

"The new Mississippi law, approved by the legislature during its last session, becomes effective Oct. 1. The statute specifies that no utility company can connect or provide service without receiving and recording the number of the registration certificate issued for the mobile home," he explained.

The city's latest effort to bulldoze the area into respectability seems to have been a failure, according to Mayor Larry Bennett.

An attempt to bury the large accumulation of garbage and trash in a huge water-filled hole on the property failed when a bulldozer rented by the city began to bog down in the soft earth. Not result of the bulldozer's work was to move the sorry mess into giant mounds, thus leaving more room for continued dumping.

Lott sponsors fisherman boat loan increases

A Merchant Marine and Fisheries subcommittee is next week expected to hear testimony on legislation introduced by Congressman Trent Lott, R-Miss., which would reduce downpayments paid by fishermen on National Marine Fisheries Service loans.

Lott, who introduced the legislation earlier this year, said he is hopeful the subcommittee will take favorable action, which would signal a positive step toward passage. (Continued on Page 4)

Mueller named 1978 Merit semi-finalist

Brother Eldon Crifasi, principal of St. Stanislaus, has announced that senior Phillip Mueller has been named as a semifinalist in the competition for about 3,400 Merit Scholarships to be awarded in 1978. The Merit Program Semifinalists were the highest scores in each state on the 1976 National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test.

The approximately 15,000 semifinalists represent the top one-half of one percent of the nation's academically talented students. Over 90 percent of the semifinalists are expected to become finalists and thus become eligible for scholarships to the college or university of their choice. These finalists will be announced in April, 1978.

Mueller is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Mueller, 203 McClung Street, Pass Christian, and he is presently in his sixth year at St. Stanislaus. He is an alpha honor roll student and a member of both the National Honor Society and the Spanish Honor Society at St. Stanislaus. He attended the Naval Academy English and Science Seminar in 1977 as well as the Mississippi State Science and Math Fair. Mueller is listed in "Who's Who of High School Students."

Senior Citizens happenings

BY FRED HORN

Seniors grab your rabbit's foot, a four leaf clover, a horse shoe, and a coin from the pot of gold, and come to our October game session, at 1:30 p.m. on Oct. 10. There is always a winner, in every game, in fact sometimes two, three, or even four. The next time is your turn, so come on down to the center the prizes are just waiting for YOU!

Besides the beautiful prizes donated by our Merchants every month, there is a door prize drawn, and refreshments consisting of home-made cake and ice tea, are always served following the games.

Seniors lets make this game session a "Friendship Day."

BEREAVEMENT

We must close the "Happenings" this week with a very heavy heart, as we report the sudden passing of Mr. Wesley Bruns, on Sunday, Oct. 2nd.

Having had the privilege of knowing him, will always generate good memories, for all the good deeds that he was forever doing, for all of "his" neighbors, and friends, for all the times, "his" friendly smile, and cheerful hello, brightened our day, for all the little jokes, for always looking over so many of our loved ones, who had gone on before, but most of all just "his" recognizing that all men belong to the Family of God, and in his own way showing us all that love for one another, can over come all. Yes, Wesley, my friend, you-I will always remember, not with tears, nor sadness, but with true "brotherly love." Thank you for having passed my way.

To all the members of the family, he loved so much, we all share in your sorrow.

pair to attend crime seminar

Chief Donald Dorn and Inspector Robert Tartavouille of the Waveland police department will attend a workshop on organized crime this week.

The sessions, to be held Monday through Thursday in Memphis, Tenn., are sponsored by the Regional Organized Crime Information Center.

In addition to other services, membership in the center provides the Waveland police department with a link to a special nation-wide telephone network for dissemination of information on organized crime.

The Waveland police department is the only law enforcement agency in Hancock County which holds membership in the center.

Forensic fever strikes school

BY EDGAR PEREZ

A minor outbreak of "forensic fever" has been reported at Long Beach High School.

But that's no reason to alert the Communicable Disease Center in Atlanta, according to Coach Helen Watts of the school's Debating Team.

Coach Watts says "forensic" is just a two-dollar word for debating, and it's true, spirit among the team is running high.

The team was ranked first in the Gulf Coast district last year and placed fourth in the standings state-wide.

of tournaments with a state-wide invitational contest Friday and Saturday, Oct. 14 and 15, in Clinton.

The question being debated in high schools throughout the country this year is "Resolved: That the federal government should guarantee a comprehensive medical care program for all United States citizens."

Included in the team's preparations for the coming season was a five-day debating workshop at the University of Southern Mississippi at Gulf Park this summer.

Other engagements on the team schedule this season are state-wide invitational tournaments at Mississippi State University Nov. 11 and 12, and at USM, Hattiesburg, Dec. 9 and 10.

Members of the team include Dennis Dickenson, Scott Stibbler, Mary Lynn Sandoz, Deldrea McGlown, Kelly Calderrell, Steve Allen, Billy Wedgeworth, Karl Lion, Shelia Olinger and Jo Gammel.

'Big John' wants your blood

We (the Hancock County Blood Bank) have been using more blood than we have been donating for years. In recent months the use has far exceeded the amount that has been given.

With our advance in medicine and increased population, more and more blood is needed. We feel that what we use should be replaced, plus a little more.

'Big John' and crew of volunteers will be collecting blood Wednesday, Oct. 12, from 2 to 8 p.m. at the American Legion Post 139 home on Blue Meadow Road, Bay St. Louis.

The Hancock County Blood Bank has been in operation for 26 years, many of the volunteers including 'Big John' have been helping for that many years.

If these volunteers, doctors, nurses can donate some of their time and blood you should be able to donate a little of your blood.

'Big John' and crew will be waiting to take your blood, so give some.

Turn the dump around

The dump situated adjacent to Spanish Acres Subdivision has been in the limelight for sometime. Efforts by the owners and police to keep people from dumping garbage seem to have been unsuccessful.

This dump is a health hazard, because of rodents that accumulate in these types of areas, and also, because of the water, a small child could easily fall in and drown.

Efforts should be made by the City of Bay St. Louis to eliminate this danger as soon as possible. Close residents to the dump have every reason to be concerned about its elimination.

Thousands of yards of material have been removed from this area, to be used for fill throughout the city to build homes and level yards. It would take thousands of yards of material to fill this hole, creating yet another hole which in later years would probably cause the same problems.

Our suggestion to the City of Bay St. Louis would be that they make an effort to purchase this property from the owners and make a park out of it, with a large stocked fishing lake.

The park would do several things. Eliminate a hazard, beautify an eyesore, give a needed recreation area, and give Bay St. Louis something to be proud of owning.

There isn't a place that had as much garbage, trash and whatever you could think of than the area that is now Buccaneer State Park.

It sure doesn't look like a dump today, does it?

Tidelands leasing... (Continued from Page 1)

The practice is clouding private ownership titles and apparently will place the burden of court proof of ownership on the local citizens instead of the state.

Hancock County Farm Bureau officials claim that the over-estimate of acreage by the state has occurred because the state is not performing a physical survey of each parcel of land prior to leasing it, but instead is estimating the state's claim from an aerial survey map of the coastal wetlands and arbitrarily tracing lines on the map roughly outlining the tree line. Generally speaking the map skips dwellings but includes all streams, bayous, marshlands and grasslands adjacent to the tidewater with the exception of timbered zones.

The resolution passed by the Hancock County Farm Bureau last month and forwarded for consideration in the state bureau's policy list for 1978 stated: "We request the Mississippi Legislature to direct and require the State Mineral Lease Commission to cease mineral leasing and to rescind existing leases on private and county school lands until on spot surveys have been made to determine the exact boundaries of state ownership as per law of state.

"We further request the state to take responsibility for making surveys and setting up guidelines for same."

"A.G. 'Fritz' Harris, farm manager of the Crump property in the area, reports that the state now claims about 800 acres of Crump lands including some timberland at about six feet elevation. Though this property is not for sale, the 800 acres now claimed by the state is worth almost a million dollars on today's market.

"On the shore of the Jourdan River fisherman John Mikovalje stood beside an attractive yellow frame house on pilings to describe the impact of the state's action on him. His father immigrated to America from Yugoslavia in 1907 and bought 15 acres adjacent to the Jourdan River. He paid the taxes annually and passed the land to John. Today John and his son Jean and their families still live on their homestead, but the State of Mississippi now claims approximately two-thirds of their property," Blake reported.

Blake concluded his report by stating that most of the affected landowners don't believe what is happening. "They (the landowners) have quietly accepted the stringent regulations of the Wetlands Act in the area. 'Today they are hard put to accept the state's land grab that coincides with recent discovery of natural gas and oil in the first 14 wells drilled in that area,'" he concluded.

BAY MAN PROMOTED- Vincent J. Cuevas, son of Mrs. Monroe Cuevas and the late Mr. Cuevas of State Street, Bay St. Louis, has been promoted to position of area sales engineer for Combustion Engineering, Inc. (C-E). A graduate of St. Stanislaus, he holds a BS in mechanical engineering from the University of Mississippi, and is a member of the Society of Petroleum Engineers of the American Institute of Mechanical Engineers.

Mississippi consumer report

APPLIANCE PURCHASES

Helpers Around the House
Appliances - both large and small - play an ever-increasing role in each consumer's life. There are specific procedures to follow when purchasing appliances which enable the consumer to get the most for his money and for his needs.

In the selection of a particular appliance, shop around not only for price comparisons, but also to compare the features offered by different models and manufacturers. Know the advantages and disadvantages of each model and decide what extras, if any, you need. Buy appliances made only by reputable manufacturers and sold through well-established dealers. Inquire about warranties and service available should your appliance need repair. Check for seals of approval such as the Underwriter's Laboratory Seal (which should be on all electrical products and the American Gas Association Seal. Purchase appliances that are easy and economical to use and clean.

Before purchasing any appliance, know where you are going to store it. Evaluate your space for convenience in installation and operation to avoid purchasing any equipment that is too large or cannot efficiently be installed. These are major purchases for any household and choosing them for your family's needs is of utmost importance and should be made with much thought and consideration.

HOUSEHOLD INVENTORY

How to Prove Your Loss
If fire gutted your home, would you be able to describe and appraise all of your belongings for insurance purposes? You probably would not be able to list everything unless you have an up-to-date household inventory. A household inventory is a detailed list of everything you own, its monetary satisfaction from this "relocation" project, as they continue to fight the problem of flies, rats, possible disease, odor, smoke and occasional fires which creep dangerously close to their homes.

"There's a fire hazard right at our back door now," said Mrs. Ruth Schold of 610 Spanish Acres Dr., referring to dried foliage piled near her property.

"We have a problem with rats and snakes and the general nuisance of the thing," Mrs. Schold said, adding, "when you live in the city you don't expect to have to put up with this kind of mess."

Mrs. Karl Vinot, the Don Quixote of Spanish Acres, has waged an unsuccessful battle against the dump for the past four years.

Mrs. Vinot, who lives at 608 Spanish Acres Dr. with three small children, said, "I have rats from that dump in my yard...and I don't mean mice."

"City officials refuse to maintain the dump in a sanitary way," Mrs. Vinot contends.

"My main complaint is with the fires which start from spontaneous combustion and rage through the whole dump," Mrs. Vinot stated.

"We want action," she emphasized, noting she had had continuous assurance from the county health department that the dump would be closed.

Bennett said the next best alternative left open to the city is to bring in a dragline crane to move the accumulation into the lowest areas and cover it over with dirt.

"Bringing in a crane will cost the city more than $1,000," Bennett pointed out, adding the project has been held in abeyance until the city moved into its new fiscal year Oct. 1.

"We have to make a determination of where this money is going to come from," Bennett said. "We're trying to save the taxpayers' money, but this is a sticky situation," he continued.

"We also have to determine if the county health department is going to allow continued use of this dump before we spend that kind of money on it," the mayor stated.

"Another factor here is the worn-out condition of the city's four trucks," he said, adding, "if they have to make long trips every day to the county land fill at Catahoula, I don't think they'll make it."

Bennett said private dumping in the area is already prohibited. "The area is posted, we are taking license numbers of people dumping there and they will receive citations," Bennett said.

"But the people are determined to continue dumping," he said. "Last week city workers, as they attempted to put a chain across the entrance, were almost run down by a motorist in his insistence on getting in to unload," the mayor complained.

At this time, the mayor said, the city is using the area only as a depository of trash, with city garbage being hauled to Catahoula.

"But this is not the nicest thing to have in the city limits," the mayor agreed.

Owner of the property in question, contacted yesterday, said, "It looks to me like a problem of policing or guarding the area to stop private citizens from dumping there," Kingston said. "If they could catch one or two of them and fine them, that would stop it."

Louis Fernandez, chief sanitarian for the Hancock County Health Department, said his office has requested the city to stop using the area as a dump.

"We started out with the agreement this would only be used for limbs, trees and that kind of dry trash," Fernandez said, "but it has gotten out of hand and is a real problem."

He said the water-filled low areas on the property may be serving as mosquito breeding grounds.

Chains placed across the dump entrance off Webb Street have been removed and carried off, Fernandez complained.

"A Time For Optimism."

In commenting on the program, Benigno said, "Four hundred and eighty-five years ago, Christopher Columbus completed one of the most daring and courageous exploratory sea voyages recorded in the annals of mankind—resulting in the discovery of the North American Continent."

"More than one and a quarter million men of the western hemisphere, all Knights of Columbus members, join together this week in observing this the anniversary of Columbus' epic voyage."

In addition to the special radio broadcast, other Columbus Day activities are planned.

The next local event will be 7 p.m., Saturday, Oct. 15 at the Council Home when a social hour will begin at 7:00 p.m. followed by a banquet for members and guests.

The legislation would permit the federal government to guarantee obligations for financing fishing vessels up to 87 and one-half percent of the actual cost. Under current law, the government may guarantee only up to 75 percent of the cost of fishing vessel construction or reconditioning.

"Under current statutes, fishermen must make an initial investment, or downpayment, of at least 25 percent," Lott said. "I know few fishermen who are able to afford such a large downpayment and I think this condition virtually prohibits expansion of our fishing industry."

Lott's legislation, which has been sponsored by 15 other members of Congress, would slash the required downpayment in half, to 12 and one-half percent. "This would enable many more individuals to take part in the program at no cost to the Treasury," he said.

The subcommittee of the Merchant Marine and Fisheries Committee has tentatively scheduled hearings on the bill next week, although the actual date is to be announced.

Starting for Bay High will be either Chuck Benigno or Don Ginn at quarterback. On the second row are: blocking back Joe Cabanis, fullback Bruce Cain, and running back Danny Rhodes. The Bay High team will be competing with the junior varsity teams from, St. Stanislaus, Pass Christian, d'Iberville and Long Beach.

Local shrimp landings aid state catch

By EDGAR PEREZ

Shrimp brought to port in Mississippi during August, 1977, totaled a heds-od weight of some 481,000 pounds, according to the National Marine Fisheries Service.

These figures include catches landed at Bayou Caddy, Pass Christian, and Gulfport.

The catch is August was down from the 570,000 pounds landed in the state during August, 1976, the service reported.

But the figures show an increase during the period January through August, 1977, of more than 1.3 million pounds from the catch landed in Mississippi during the same period last year.

The total catch for this year through August is some 4,998,000 pounds compared to 3,603,000 pounds for the same period of 1976.

launched

The NASA National Space Technology Laboratories officially launched its 1978 Combined Federal Campaign—United Way—Drive Sept. 30 with an ambitious goal of $70,000.

Kick-off ceremonies were held in the site recreation area and was attended by employees of NASA, resident agencies and industrial contractors.

The kick-off featured a talk by Butch van Breda Kolff, athletic director and head basketball coach of the University of New Orleans. Van Breda Kolff is the former head coach of the New Orleans Jazz basketball team.

Jeffrey Hlass, NSTL manager, gave opening remarks to the several hundred site employees present and served as master of ceremonies. Representatives of the organizations which will be receiving funds from the NSTL drive were present. They are the Hancock, Harrison, Jackson and Pearl River Counties in Mississippi, and the Greater New Orleans organization (which includes Slidell and St. Tammany Parish), the National Health Agencies and International Service Agencies.

The campaign will run through October. Employees will be given the opportunity to give to the community or participating charities they wish to designate.

Mark Payne, manager of Installation Operations at NSTL, is this year's drive chairman. Other members of the campaign organization are W.S. Fuller, executive assistant and treasurer; Dewey G. Little, special advisor and federal campaign director; John Selley, industrial drive director; Mack Herring, publicity director; R.V. Callahan, federal treasurer; and L.W. Ponder, industrial treasurer.

Letter to the Editor
Sea Coast Echo

Dear Sir:

My husband and I wish to express our gratitude to you and the Edmond Fahey Funeral Home for publishing the Obituary Notice of my Father, John V. McLean who deceased Friday, September 23, 1977. Needless to say, at the time of such a shock and unexpected loss, I overlooked many things.

I would especially like for all the Bay-Waveland residents to know what devoted and sincere workers the Mobile-Medic Ambulance Service has. The driver, Mr. Cardledge and the Attendant, Mrs. Prevou arrived within minutes to help save my father; they worked constantly to revive him from his massive heart attack - but it was God's will he should pass on. Our thanks also would like to be expressed to the Sheriff's Deputy who came immediately and to the Hancock General Hospital Emergency Room Staff.

My Father had just had double cataracts removed July 21 and July 28 in New Orleans and the intraocular lens implanted - he was so happy to see clear again - the operation was a complete success. His life ended 2 months later but I am sure he can still see well in Heaven.

The very day before he died, he asked me to write you and ask if the Sea Coast Echo could not carry a Television Program Section - especially the local stations. Many sick or elderly people could not always go after a New Orleans paper and TV was his only company. Having home delivery of the Sea Coast Echo with the TV schedule could be the answer. In his honor, and request, I would appreciate your consideration.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Doris Lewis

Hancock takes win

"We knew it would be a tough game. We knew they were big, but when we got there they were huge."

Coach Irvin Favre of the Hancock North Central Hawks took his team to Lumberton Friday night and brought back a 9-6 victory for the fifth win of the season against no losses for the county school.

for the way they performed in the game. Our defense was kind of slow at the start but once they got started they did a real fine job."

The scoring responsibilities for the Hawks rested on the shoulders of quarterback
Vincent Adams, tight end
Mark Ladner and place kicker Rocky Cuevas.

in the second frame when he lined up for a field goal from 35 yards out. Cuevas' kick was easily good and with seven seconds left in the first half the Hawks took a 9-0 lead.

The second half belonged to Lumberton as the home team picked up its only score of the night on a one yard run by quarterback Jeff Daltew. The Lumberton team tried for two points on the conversion only to fumble the opportunity away.

Although proud of his team and confident of their chances to remain undefeated, Favre knew the Hawks still have a long way to go.

"We're no where near over the hump. We play Pearl River Central next week.
They're a good football team too. This was Lumberton's homecoming and next week will be Pearl River's and they're going to be up for this game. We still have a long way to go this season," added the Hancock coach.

"We knew it would be a tough game and that's just what it was. It was one of those knock down drag out type games and we were just good enough to come out on top of it."

"I'm very proud of our team

Adams hit Ladner with a 13 yard touchdown pass for the only six pointer of the night for the Hancock team. The PAT attempt by Cuevas went bad and the Hawks led 6-0 in the first quarter.

SAD ROCK-A-CHAW- The St. Stanislaus mascot had a reason to wipe a tear from his eye Friday night as the Rocks suffered their second straight loss. Last week St.
Stanislaus fell 7-0 to Hancock North Central and were defeated this week 56-6 at the hands of d'Iberville.

By ELLIS CUEVAS D'Iberville picked up from where they left off in scoring last week Friday night, by walloping St. Stanislaus 56-6 at Rock-A-Chaw Stadium. The Warriors put 50 points on the Tiger scoreboard last Friday.
D'Iberville's fine running and passing was a key factor in their one sided victory. The Warriors picked up 192 yards rushing and 159 yards passing to the Rocks 37 yards rushing and 60 yards passing.

The Rock-A-Chaws were able to put 6 points on the scoreboard late in the third quarter on their only successful drive of the game.
Quarterback Pete Burnhelm hit tight end Roger Irvin with a beautiful four yard pass in the end zone with 3:49 left in the quarter.

The score was set up with a pass interception by Jay Rousseau that put the ball on the Rocks own 28. Stanislaus moved the ball down field in 10 plays aided by two Warrior penalties.

The Warriors scored with 2:56 left in the first quarter on a eight yard run by Rusty Fountain. D'Iberville added three more td's in the second quarter to lead 30-0 at the half.
The Warriors continued scoring by adding 12 points in the third and 14 in the fourth quarter. The Warrior bench was cleared in the second half,
with many first stringers

Gulfview takes two wins

The fifth and sixth grade team of Gulfview Elementary remained undefeated this week with a 12-0 win over North Bay at Tiger Stadium to raise their season record to 4-0-1.

The seventh and eighth grade faired as well as they raised their record to 5-0 with a 25-14 victory over Charles B.
Murphy of Pearlington.

The fifth and sixth grade
team got scores from Jack Singleton and Donald Wayne Graham in the win. Graham hit Singleton with a 75 yard scoring pass in the first quarter. In the second frame Graham did the honors himself with a nine yard run to put the Gulfview team on top 12-0 at the half.

Sam Rush, and John Moran added to the offensive output of the Bulldogs in moving the ball downfield for the second score of the day.

In the seventh and eighth grade game Jay Lee carried the load for the Gulfview team. Lee scored the first TD of the day with a 35 yard run.
The PAT was no good and the Gulfview team took a 6-0 lead.

David Leech took the kickoff for Murphy and returned it to the Gulfview two yard line.
Four plays later the ball was still at the two and in the possession of Gulfview.
Ronnie Surratt, Carlo Busch and Nelson Crawdsale were credited in the goal line stand by the Gulfview team.

Lee added his second TD of the day with a four yard plunge to cap a 98 yard drive by Gulfview. Again the PAT was no good and Gulfview led 12-0 at the half.

After the Murphy kickoff
Donald Carver went 60 yards on the first play from scrimmage for the third Gulfview touchdown of the day.

Leech again took the Gulfview kickoff and returned it all the way this time on an 80 yard touchdown jaunt. The Murphy team connected on the first PAT of the day to narrow the gap to 18-6.

Lee added one more touchdown for the Bulldogs with a 60 yard touchdown run with a Phillip Seay pass. Carver added the PAT to put the Bulldogs on top 26-6.

Again Leech got the call for the Murphy team and turned in a nine yard run for the final score of the day.

White Cypress by Yvonne Ladner

The Third Annual Gumbo Festival was a tremendous success and the parishioners of the White Cypress Catholic Church wish to extend their gratitude to all friends, neighbors, visitors, and guests who helped to make it such a great success.

In spite of rain Sunday afternoon, everyone had a very enjoyable weekend.

The building was stated on Monday, Oct. 3, and evidence of the progress being made will be visible very soon.

Victory Baptist Church will hold "Old Fashion Day" with members dressing in "Old Fashions" and having dinner on the grounds on Sunday, Oct. 16.

Mr. and Mrs. Dubois Ladner are the proud parents of a girl, born Sept. 29.

Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Shaw had a visit from their son, Tim, of Houston, Tex., last weekend.

Our sympathies are extended to the family of Elmer Ladner, of the Rocky Hill community.

available at the grounds, according to program organizers.

TINA ROBERTSON of Pelahatchie, has assumed the duties of executive director, Mississippi Cattle Industry Board. In making the announcement, Jerry Lyon, president, MCIB, said Ms. Robertson is best known to the state cattle industry for her dedicated and proficient work while serving as office secretary for the past five years. Her new responsibilities include revenue development, in-state beef promotion, and consumer education.

PESTICIDE

CERTIFICATION TRAINING

There will be a series of Pesticide Training Meetings scheduled as follows: Oct. 11 - Hancock North Central School - 7:00 p.m.; Oct. 12 - Gulfview School - 7:00 p.m.; Oct. 13 - Extension Auditorium - 2:00 p.m., 405 Necaise Avenue, Bay St. Louis; Oct. 19 - Bay Sr. High School - 7:00 p.m.

Farmers and homeowners who use or supervise the use of restricted pesticides must be certified as private pesticide applicators by Oct. 21. The law will go into effect at that time, and unless you have been certified, you will not be able to buy any of the restricted-use pesticides for your use.

FARMWEEK COMING SOON

Farmweek, a weekly statewide television program devoted to the state's agricultural accomplishments and outlook will begin broadcast Monday, Oct. 3 at 7:30 p.m. The program is a co-production of the Mississippi Cooperative Extension Service and the Mississippi Educational Television Network. Extension Radio-TV Editor Bruce Johnson will serve as host.

Farmweek will contain the latest agricultural news, marketing information, state and national weather information, and in-the-field features on new and successful farming methods. There will also be interviews with political figures on key agricultural legislation, regular information on coping with the rising costs of farming and gardening advice. Look for Farmweek beginning Monday, Oct. 3 at 7:30 p.m. on Mississippi Educational Television.

CROP RESIDUE FEED RESTRICTIONS

Hay and other feed stuffs are scarce this year, and many livestock producers are considering bailing soybean, corn and sorghum stubble for winter feed. However, most herbicide labels forbid use of residue from treated crops for food or feed.

Most widely used herbicides for corn, soybeans and sorghum have feed restrictions on the label. In some cases the restrictions are due to insufficient feeding studies. In other cases, such as with MSMA, herbicide toxicity makes it unsafe to feed animals residue from treated crops.

Think before using crop residues as feed.

Home Economist's Notes

Extension Home Economist is putting emphasis on helping you save money. The emphasis is called Pocket Watch. For the next three months the service will be helping you shop for food.

A complete list of foods, based on planned menus, simplifies shopping. It includes all the foods you need for the meals in your menus, taking into account foods already on hand. If menus are well planned, a complete list can lead to nourishing meals, probably at lower cost. You are less likely to buy haphazardly, and one trip to the store may be enough.

Many homemakers settle for a partial list - or a shop-now, plan-later list. They do not plan actual menus, but jot down general needs. After comparing costs at the store, they buy a variety of foods and prepare meals from these selections.

Here is the way a partial list might work. Each week your grocery cart probably contains about the same number of packages of meat, loaves of bread, cartons of milk, as well as fresh, canned, and frozen vegetables and fruits. If you shop regularly, this pattern becomes the basis of your list.

For a family of four, a typical shop-now, plan-later list for a week's meals at moderate cost might look like this:

- 7 meats for dinner (1 company)
- 7 vegetables, canned, frozen or fresh (1 company)
- 7 other vegetables, including potatoes, or rice, macaroni, noodles, spaghetti (1 company)
- 7 salad fixings: greens, raw vegetables, fruit cottage cheese (1 company)
- 3 gallons of milk
- 2 dozen eggs

- 2 packages cereal
- 1 package breakfast buns
- Juice for breakfast
- 3 loaves of bread
- Cheese, lunch meat, tuna for sandwiches
- Dressing, Jam, mustard and like items.

Whether you shop with a complete list, a partial list, or no list - is up to you. If you shop for food without planning, look out! Impulse buying may send costs soaring.

Compretta, second left, and State Senator Martin Smith, following Hancock County Farm Bureau annual general meeting recently in McLeod Park on Texas Flat Road. ## Hasten spring pasture yield by overseeding ryegrass acres

With the frost date nearing and cold weather predicted in the next few weeks, permanent summer pastures will become dormant until next spring.

"Bermuda, Bahia and dallisgrass pastures will provide no forage except frosted grass for several months," says Dr. Hiram Palmertree, Mississippi Cooperative Extension Service agronomist. "However, these pastures can be made productive earlier next spring by overseeding with ryegrass this fall."

Between now and Oct. 20 broadcast 40 pounds of ryegrass per acre, instructs the agronomist. Grazing may be available as early as January but with a severely cold winter, it may be delayed until mid-February. Overseeded pastures will provide high quality grazing until late May. A hay crop can also be harvested about June 1 if grazing is managed properly.

If farmers are short on hay or other stored feed, one-half to three-fourths acre of overseeded ryegrass per animal will provide spring grazing. Ryegrass is a highly nutritious grass and may be more economical than purchased feed.

To prepare land for overseeding, graze or clip the grass as closely as possible. Before seeding, disk once and broadcast lime and fertilizer according to soil test results, suggests Dr. Palmertree. Without soil test results, broadcast 300 pounds of 8-24-24 fertilizer and topdress with 200 pounds of ammonium nitrate in December. Apply another 150 pounds in March. If 13-13-13 fertilizer is applied at planting, topdress with ammonium nitrate in December or January, depending upon growing conditions.

"Do not overseed more than about two-thirds of an acre per cow. This forage will make tremendous growth in March and April and may delay the emergence of permanent grass next summer," cautions the agronomist.

FmHA extends disaster loan application date

The U.S. Farmers Home Administration (FmHA) has extended to Dec. 2 the deadline for farmers in Hancock County to apply for farm emergency loans to cover losses caused by this year's drought and other natural disasters.

The agency's County Supervisor, Robert W. Smith, said the extension has been ordered by Secretary of Agriculture Bob Bergland, for applications under drought or other emergency loan-eligibility designations that would expire before Dec. 2, provided the designations are based on disasters that have occurred on or after July 1, 1976. The Secretary's action was taken under requirements of recent emergency loan legislation (PL 95-89) signed by President Carter.

Among deadlines changed to Dec. 2 is the previous Sept. 30 deadline to apply for farm loans under the President's special drought assistance program.

Farmers lacking other sources of necessary credit may apply to FmHA for loans to offset losses or revive farming operations. Under the schedule of interest rates as revised by PL 95-89, loans are made at a rate of 3 percent on the first $250,000 borrowed against actual loss, five percent for additional amounts of offsetting actual loss, and eight percent for loans not based on loss but needed to continue farming or make major adjustments in farm operations.

Smith said extension of earlier deadlines will give farmers whose crops returns are determined late in the year a better opportunity to assess their losses and credit needs, and enable FmHA to speed completion of work on application now pending that need immediate processing. FmHA emergency loan applications from farmers in Hancock County are received at the agency's county office located at 503 Main Street, Bay St. Louis.

Mississippi weekly weather & crop report

WEATHER SUMMARY (National Weather Service): Thunderstorms occurred in north Mississippi on several days during the final week of September, but mostly near the end of that week over the remainder of the state.

CROP SUMMARY: The continued rainy and windy conditions hampered crop harvesting and caused some losses to the soybean, cotton, and rice crops. When the weather permitted, farm activities included harvesting, planting winter grazing crops, and some insect control.

Soil moisture supplies were adequate in the south and mostly surplus elsewhere. An average of 2.8 days was suitable for fieldwork compared to 4.2 days last week and 4.8 days for the same week last year.

The soybean acreage was 76 percent shedding compared to 64 percent last year and 39 percent mature compared to 34 percent last year and 23 percent for the average. The acreage was 13 percent harvested, ahead of last year's 7 percent and 9 percent for the average. The crop was in fair to good condition.

Corn was 53 percent harvested compared to 44 percent last year and 30 percent for the average. Sorghums were 62 percent harvested, slightly behind last year's 71 percent but ahead of the average of 55 percent.

Hay crops were 85 percent harvested, average for the date, compared to 91 percent last year. Sweet potatoes were 47 percent harvested, average for the date and virtually the same as last year when 48 percent had been harvested. Pastures were in good to fair condition. Pecans were in fair condition.

COMMENTS

HANCOCK CO. "Some soybeans were being harvested the early part of the week, heavy rain Wednesday slowed them down. Insects are still a big problem. Winter grazing crops are being put in as fast as possible."

POSSIBLE CHANGE IN WHEAT, FEED GRAIN DISASTER PAYMENTS

Wheat and Feed Grain farmers who have no acreage allotments or who have overplanted their allotments for these crops may be eligible for Government Disaster

VETERINARY SCIENCE VISUAL AIDS

Young people interested in animals and their health will find a unique learning aid.

Color slides (1,200 in 28 sets) developed for use in the national veterinary science program are available for interested groups. The visual aids, designed for use with the existing three units of 4-H veterinary science material, were funded by the Upjohn Company and produced by the National 4-H Council.

Starting with the normal animal, the units move into the study of animal disease and conclude with immunology, zoonoses and public health.

Boys and girls from 9 to 19 are enrolled in the Cooperative Extension Service 4-H veterinary science program. Learn-by-doing activities of this program appeal to both urban and rural youth, whether or not they have their own animals.

For example, last year members of one 4-H club conducted a pet vaccination

SOYBEANS damaged by worms and blight face hollow podding and much reduced yield. These beans, in fields leased by James Travira and Wesley Haas, have been sprayed from air on two occasions and replanted once to thicken growth, all to hardly any avail. Weeds, blight, worms, and disease, caused by drought followed by almost non-stop rains, have resulted in farmers asking county to be declared disaster area. Drought seriously hurt produce and grass farmers, with many reporting a 100 percent crop loss.

center. Veterinarians from neighboring towns gave the shots while club members held the animals and kept medical records. More than 70 cats and dogs were vaccinated as a result of this community service project.

4-Hers in the program not only gain insight into preventive animal medicine, but also become aware of

FORESTRY REPORT

A report on the most extensive research project to date concerning the impact of forestry activities on the economy of the state will be presented by Dr. Richard L. Porterfield, Oct. 19 and 20, at the Mississippi Forestry Association's annual meeting in Jackson.

People suffering from the same disease have mutual sympathy.
Misery loves company.

Easy to say, hard to do.
Easier said than done.

A new servant works hard but twenty days.
A new broom sweeps clean.

Sanitation first, medicine next.
An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure.

Single effort, double gain.
Kill two birds with one stone.

Water on a fog's face.
Like water off a duck's back.

A bee to a weeping face.
Misfortunes never come singly.

Wealth makes a fool a master.
Money makes the man.

Dust amassed will make a mountain.
Great oaks from little acorns grow.

An able hawk hides its claws.
Still water runs deep.

Parents' partial eyes.
Everyone thinks his geese swans.

CLOWNS were putting on make-up yesterday in preparation for show tomorrow at Hancock County Fair Grounds. Sponsored by Kiwanis, Big Top will begin at 4:30 and 8 p.m. Proceeds will be used for community oriented activities by Kiwanis, with 25 percent being earmarked for Hancock County United Fund.

THE FIZZLE FAMILY

A LETTER FOR YOU, M'AM!

THANKS JOE!

WHO'S IT FROM, DEAR?

MY MOTHER!

MOTHER REMEMBERS YOU IN HER LETTER...

...AND ADDS HER USUAL "I TOLD YOU SO!"

WIPE THAT GRIN OFF YOUR FACE OR I'LL...

I'M NOT GRINNING! THAT'S MY NATURAL LOOK!

Y'KNOW WHAT I DO TO SMART ALES? I PUNCH THEM RIGHT IN THE NOSE... LIKE THIS...

OOH! POOR PUGGY IS IN TROUBLE! I MUST HELP HIM!

YOU SHOULDN'T BE OUTSIDE WITH YOUR MEASLES... PUGGY!

MEASLES? THANKS, PAL!

PUGGY

Picture from a Kitchen Window

No one can ever really know
The joys that yearly come and go Across my window pane.
It is the season's Ikathuan.

In spring, I watch the green leaves grow,
To cover barren limbs from Winter's snow.
Then tiny buds begin to form,
That open wide when the weather's warm.

There is a big, deep red Velvet rose.
That proudly in summer's sun glows.
It is most rare in all its beauty,
To reveal God's handiwork - I fulfill its duty.

Yellow acacia brings in fall's flowers,
To help me while away the hours -
As I watch the busy bumble bee,
These little creatures are a joy to see.

Well, Winter's upon us once again,
The picture changes from my window pane;
The sun that shines upon the wall -
Is no less beautiful than they all.

Adams signs with Bulldogs

MISSISSIPPI STATE—One of the leading rebounders in the Ohio Valley Conference last winter, 6-8 center John Adams of Tennessee Tech. has signed a basketball grant-in-aid with Mississippi State and will transfer.

Adams, a resident of Pensacola, Fla., and former standout at Woodham High School, will sit out the 1977-78 season and become eligible in 1978-79.

The 185-pound Bulldog cager averaged 10.7 points per game and 8.9 rebounds per contest with the Golden Eagles last year.

He led the squad in rebounding during 15 of its 27 games in 1976-77 and scored a season high of 20 against Stetson.

As a freshman starter for Tennessee Tech the 20-year-old MSU signee had a career high game of 22 markers against Western Carolina while grabbing 11 rebounds apiece against East Tennessee, Western Carolina, and Middle Tennessee.

His freshman scoring average was 8.2 ppg while he hauled in 5.4 caroms per game as a starter.

In the winter of '77 he pulled in a team high and individual best mark of 19 rebounds against Valdosta (Ga.) State.

"John is a very talented inside player," said State

Head Coach Ron Greene upon his inking. "I had the opportunity of seeing him when I coached New Orleans in the Porcero Cup Tournament last year, and he had a great game scoring and on the boards."

One of the top prospects in the Florida Panhandle prep

TENNIS CLINICS

A tennis clinic will be held at St. Stanislaus tennis courts for children, ages 7 - 15, Monday through Friday, Oct. 3-Oct. 7. Time 5 p.m. to 6 p.m.

A clinic for adults will be held from 6 to 7 p.m. on the same days.

Pass Christian to host invitational tournament

The Pass Christian Isles Golf Club will host an invitational 36 hole golf tournament Oct. 22 and 23.

The tournament will include practice rounds on Thursday and Friday with a fish fry Friday night at 7:30.

Saturday's first round will be used as a qualifying round to determine flights and will be counted toward the 36 hole total for the tournament. There will be a buffet dinner at 8 p.m. Saturday.

Sunday's final round will be followed by a cocktail party and awards presentation.

Entry is limited to the first 144 players to register. For further information contact Ronnie Benandi at the Pass Christian Isles Golf Club at 452-4651.

CHAIRMEN PUT HEART INTO SPORTS—Insurance Commissioner George Dale (R), 1978 state heart fund chairman, and his vice-chairman, Ben Samel (L) of Laurel, recommend sports to help reduce the risk of heart disease. As leaders of the 1978 campaign, they will direct thousands of Mississippi volunteers in their plan to reach a goal of $633,000. And, chairmen Dale and Samel will also be recommending a regular exercise program—along with no smoking, high blood pressure control, and proper nutrition—as ways to guard against heart disease.

seeing very little action.

Warrior quarterback James Montgomery's passing was right on target with the exception of one time when Rock's Rousseau interception set up their only TD.

A Rock fan at the end of the game said that whenever the Warriors ran the ball the runners always had a couple of blockers leading the way, whether it was up the middle or around the ends.

Coach Bill Poole's Rock-A-Chaws now 2-2-1 for the season will journey next week to entertain St. Martin. The conference leading Warriors 5-1 for the season will have a week of rest with an open date.

LSU, Ole Miss Jayvee to meet

The Ole Miss junior varsity, with one win under its belt, travels to Baton Rouge Monday to take on the Baby Bengals of Louisiana State.

The Baby Rebels kicked off their four game season on a winning note Sept. 23 with a 17-14 win over Memphis State. The winning margin was a 24-yard field goal by Robin Lavinghouse in the second quarter.

LSU dropped its first game of the season to Houston 31-26. Baby Rebel head coach George Blair, in his first year at Ole Miss, expects a tough game.

"They'll be playing at home, of course," said Blair, "and after Houston beat them last week I imagine they'll be coming out after us."

With the Rebel varsity gearing up for Saturday's SEC clash with Georgia, Blair said that his team hasn't been able to work much together.

"But Georgia runs the veer—which is our offense—and that is what we've been running in practice," said Blair. "That helps a little."

The Baby Tigers operate out of the power-I, and defensively show five-man fronts. Although Blair has not been able to set his starting lineup yet Ray Hamel, Don Rollins, and David Sellers, a trio of freshmen, should share time at quarterback.

Against Memphis State, Blair said, "We'll be playing at home, of course," said Blair, "and after Houston beat them last week I imagine they'll be coming out after us."

Sellers engineered one eight-play, 67-yard drive and was the Rebs second leading rusher with 67-yards in 13 carries.

Frosh fullback Dale Erves lead the Baby Rebels against MSU with 67-yards in 12 trips, but he has been hampered this week with a slight knee injury. Blair lists Erves as "hopeful" for the game.

Other Reb casualties are tackle Mark Meisgeier, linebacker Bentley Burgess, both with knee problems, and tackle Alan White with a shoulder injury.

Burgess was the top Ole Miss tackler in the opener, recording eight solo stops and three assists. He was followed by defensive back Mike Fountain (7-1) and tackle Keith Kellum, with six tackles and two assists.

Kickoff is slated for 2:30 p.m. in the LSU track stadium.

Sports Quiz

Baseball Records

1. What former major leaguer holds the record for the highest lifetime batting average?
2. What former major leaguer holds the record for playing in the most consecutive games?
3. What former major leaguer once scored 196 runs in a single season?
4. What former major leaguer played the most games during his 24 year career?
5. What former major leaguer holds the record for the most Runs Batted In during his career?

ANSWERS:
1. Ty Cobb tops the batting record with a lifetime average of .367.
2. Iron Man Lou Gehrig played in 2,130 consecutive games.
3. In 1894 William R. Hamilton scored 196 runs in 131 games.
4. Again Lou Gehrig holds the record with 3,033 in his career.
5. Hammerin' Hank Aaron holds the record for the most career RBIs with 2,133.

Overtime

by Randy Lankford

Many a baseball game has been decided by a questionable play. A good rhubarb adds excitement to a sometimes dull game. One of the most questionable plays of the season happened in Thursday night's game between the Yankees and the Kansas City Royals.

Billy Martin, the Yankee manager, has never been known for his cool, even temperance. Even if the Yankee boss is described as a hot head he had his reasons Thursday.

The Yankees, leading by 2-1 were in the field. Hal McCrae was on first, and Fred Patek was on third. The rest is history.

George Brett hit a bouncer to New York third baseman Graig Nettles. Nettles handled the ball with the calm finesse that any major leaguer would and threw it to Willie Randolph at second base. As Randolph turned to fire the ball to first and complete the double play, McCrae came in to second with such wild abandon, as to hurl himself into the air and give Randolph a perfect body block.

Once Randolph was on the ground, McCrae evidently thought his job was not done. The big Kansas City player continued to roll, with Randolph caught in the tangle of arms and legs. As McCrae became upright, he waved Patek home from third. Patek's run tied the score at 2-2.

As color commentator Don Drysdale put it from the press box, McCrae could have been saying, "Go ahead, I've got him here."

Indeed he did. As Randolph scrambled after the ball that had been jarred loose in his tumble, McCrae had the Yankee second baseman pinned with one arm over his waist and one leg under him.

Then the show at second went into act two. Martin stormed onto the field lodging a protest on the play.

Umpire Marty Springstead upheld the play calling McCrae out and allowing Patek to score. The official rule is: 7.09 (f). A play is ruled interference if "any batter or runner who has been put out, hinders or impedes any following play being made on a runner."

In Springstead's opinion there was no interference. It brings to mind the question that if McCrae had bouned and tagged Randolph at second base if there would have been any interference.

The Yankees did not blanked Kansas City 6-2 in the second game of the season. In the League playoffs, the call by Springstead could have been very important. As it stands it was a minor league play.
